

The Book of Leviticus

Questions from the Book of Leviticus

Chapters 1 – 3

1. From where did the Lord speak when He called unto Moses?
2. What kind of cattle was to be offered as a burnt sacrifice?
3. Where was the cattle for the burnt sacrifice to be offered?
4. What was to be placed upon the head of the burnt sacrifice? Why?
5. Where was the blood of the bullock to be sprinkled?
6. What parts of the bullock were to be washed with water?
7. What kind of sheep or goat was to be offered as a burnt sacrifice?
8. When a sheep or goat was offered, where was it to be killed?
9. What kind of birds could be offered as a burnt sacrifice?
10. What was done to the head of the bird? The blood? The feathers?
11. Where was the “place of the ashes”?
12. What three things were necessary for a meat (meal or grain) offering?
13. How much of the meat offering was burned with fire?
14. What was done with the remnant of the meat offering?

The Book of Leviticus

15. In what three things could a meat offering be baked before it was brought to the priests?
16. What two things were forbidden to be included in any meat offering?
17. What was not to be done to the oblation of first-fruits?
18. Every meat offering was to be seasoned with what?
19. How was a meat offering of corn (grain) to be prepared?
20. A peace offering could be male or female, but it had to be without what?
21. Where was the animal for a peace offering to be killed?
22. What parts were to be taken away before the peace offering was placed upon the altar?
23. If the peace offering were a lamb, what other part was to be removed?
24. Concerning the peace offerings, “All the _____ is the LORD’s.”
25. As a perpetual statute, what two things were they never to eat?

