

“That ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.”

Numbers 15:40

A YEAR OF MEMORIZATION

WEEK 10

“But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.”

Hebrews 11:6

DAY ONE - MONDAY

READ AND UNDERSTAND THE PASSAGE

Author: Unknown

Audience: Hebrew Christians

Importance: This statement serves as a broad definition of true, Bible faith. It involves belief, trust, and obedience. It comes in the context of Hebrews 11 – a chapter often referred to as Faith's Hall of Fame. Individuals mentioned in this chapter demonstrate true faith – according to the description found in this verse.

Thus, this verse emphasizes that faith is essential to one's salvation. To be pleasing to God, one must possess true faith.

DAY TWO - TUESDAY

READING AND WRITING

Read the passage out loud 10 times. Include the book, chapter, and verse. Each time, place emphasis upon a different word. Notice the rhythm and flow of the passage. Consider the phrases that make it up and where there are natural divisions in the text.

Write the passage down at least once. You may want to write it more times. You also may want to write it on an index card that can be carried with you and looked during the day. When you have a moment, take it out and read over the verse again. It is helpful to write the verse out by phrases, rather than all as one verse.

Remember to review and recite the verses from the last month! Make sure you still remember them.

DAY THREE - WEDNESDAY

LEARNING BY PHRASES

But without faith
for he that cometh to God
and that he is a rewarder

it is impossible to please him must believe that he is of them that diligently seek him

Hebrews 11:6

Read the first phrase 10 times. Cover the text and recite this phrase. If you are correct, move to the second phrase and do the same. (If not, repeat the first phrase until you remember it.)

“That ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.”

Numbers 15:40

After learning the second phrase, join it with the first phrase and say them together. Continue this process until each phrase of the passage has been learned. If you do not learn the entire verse in one session, you will continue on the next day.

DAY FOUR - THURSDAY

REPETITION, REPETITION, REPETITION

Review what you learned the previous day. Recite the memorized parts. If they are correct, move on to the next phrase of the verse. If you have learned the entire verse, recite it out loud at least 10 times. Make sure you learn and state the book, chapter, and verse.

DAY FIVE - FRIDAY

REPETITION AGAIN

Review and recite the parts of the passage you have learned. Add to them any phrases that remain. Recite the verse out loud several times. Now, write it down from memory several times. Include book, chapter, and verse. Check your work with the Bible.

DAY SIX - SATURDAY

REPETITION AND MEDITATION

Quote the verse you have learned several times. Pause to think deeply about the meaning of this passage. Remember the things studied on Day One. Ponder again the application of this verse to your life. End this session by quoting the verse again several times.

DAY SEVEN - SUNDAY

MEDITATION

What is the meaning of Hebrews 11:6?

How does this passage fit in the context of chapter 11?

What does this passage teach about the nature of true faith?

What does this passage teach about the means of salvation?

How does this passage apply to my life?

How may I use this passage in teaching others?

From what error can this passage prevent me being deceived?
