

"And they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer."

Psalm 78:35

A YEAR OF MEMORIZATION

WEEK 13

"He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned."

Mark 16:16

DAY ONE - MONDAY

READ AND UNDERSTAND THE PASSAGE

Author: Mark

Speaker: Jesus

Audience: The 11 Apostles

Importance: As Jesus gave the Great Commission – for the apostles to preach to the whole world – He told them what they were to teach others. The Gospel is “good news” – the good news of salvation offered through the blood of Christ. Those who heard and believed that good news were to obey by being baptized. Those who did this would be saved. Those who did not believe what they heard would be condemned. (Clearly, if they did not believe, they would not obey – by repenting of sins, confessing Christ, or being baptized.)

Thus, this verse emphasizes the importance of baptism in order to be saved from sin. It is an essential step in the process of salvation. This verse should be learned so that we might teach others what the Lord commanded one to do to be saved.

Note: Verse 15 begins the thought. You may want to memorize it as well.

DAY TWO - TUESDAY

READING AND WRITING

Read the passage out loud 10 times. Include the book, chapter, and verse. Each time, place emphasis upon a different word. Notice the rhythm and flow of the passage. Consider the phrases that make it up and where there are natural divisions in the text.

Write the passage down at least once. You may want to write it more times. You also may want to write it on an index card that can be carried with you and looked during the day. When you have a moment, take it out and read over the verse again. It is helpful to write the verse out by phrases, rather than all as one verse.

Remember to review and recite the verses from the several weeks! Make sure you still remember them. It might be a good time to go back to the verses from the first weeks of these studies...

DAY THREE - WEDNESDAY

LEARNING BY PHRASES

He that believeth
shall be saved
shall be damned

and is baptized
but he that believeth not
Mark 16:16

"And they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer."

Psalm 78:35

Read the first phrase 10 times. Cover the text and recite this phrase. If you are correct, move to the second phrase and do the same. (If not, repeat the first phrase until you remember it.)

After learning the second phrase, join it with the first phrase and say them together. Continue this process until each phrase of the passage has been learned. If you do not learn the entire verse in one session, you will continue on the next day.

DAY FOUR - THURSDAY

REPETITION, REPETITION, REPETITION

Review what you learned the previous day. Recite the memorized parts. If they are correct, move on to the next phrase of the verse. If you have learned the entire verse, recite it out loud at least 10 times. Make sure you learn and state the book, chapter, and verse.

DAY FIVE - FRIDAY

REPETITION AGAIN

Review and recite the parts of the passage you have learned. Add to them any phrases that remain. Recite the verse out loud several times. Now, write it down from memory several times. Include book, chapter, and verse. Check your work with the Bible.

DAY SIX - SATURDAY

REPETITION AND MEDITATION

Quote the verse you have learned several times. Pause to think deeply about the meaning of this passage. Remember the things studied on Day One. Ponder again the application of this verse to your life. End this session by quoting the verse again several times.

DAY SEVEN - SUNDAY

MEDITATION

What is the meaning of Mark 16:16?

How does this passage fit in the context of the Great Commission (vs. 14-20)?

How does this verse explain the importance of baptism?

What does this passage teach about the means of salvation?

How does this passage apply to my life?

How may I use this passage in teaching others?

From what error can this passage prevent me being deceived?
