1 Kings 1

THE ANOINTING OF SOLOMON AS KING

Introduction:

- David's legacy as King of Israel would last throughout the ages of the world. 1.
- 2. However, his time as King would come to an end.
- As David's life began to draw to a close, the choosing of a successor was necessary. 3.
  - This choice already had been made by God (2 Samuel 7). a.
  - b. This choice already had been stated by David to Bathsheba (1 Chron. 23:1).
  - However, no formal announcement had been made by the King. C.
- By publicly declaring his successor, David would be stepping aside from his role as 4. King and giving place to his son.
- In this final act, David once again revealed his character as a man after God's own 5. heart.
- Ι. David's Waning Strength

(1 Kings 1:1-4)

- Α. As David grew older, approaching 70 (cf. 2 Sam. 5:4), his strength and health began to fail him.
- Β. Unable to be warmed, a young virgin named Abishag was brought to David to help care for him.
- C. However, it became clear that David's life was nearing its end.
- Π. Adonijah's Desire for the Throne

(1 Kings 1:5-9)

- Since David had not publicly appointed a successor to the throne, his son Α. Adonijah decided to claim it for himself.
  - Adonijah was David's fourth son, born to Haggith (2 Sam. 3:4). 1.
  - After the deaths of Amnon and Absalom, he was the oldest of David's 2. sons still living.
- Β. Much like Absalom, he thought that looking like a king was more important than acting like one.
  - 1. He created a procession of horses, chariots, and 50 men to travel before him throughout the land.
  - 2. David did not discourage his acts of vanity.
- C. Adonijah plotted with Joab and Abiathar the priest to have himself anointed as Kina.
- D. He arranged a large, solemn, sacrificial feast at which he would be anointed King of Israel – inviting all his brethren except Solomon.
- III. The Counsel of Nathan and Bathsheba
  - (1 Kings 1:10-27) Nathan the prophet warned Bathsheba, David's wife, about what was Α. happening and encouraged her to speak to David.
  - Β. She reminded David of his promise to Solomon and informed him of the actions of Adonijah.
  - C. As she ended her counsel, Nathan arrived to further encourage the King.
  - They hoped that David would be persuaded to declare publicly that Solomon D. was to be his successor to the throne.
- IV. David's Humble Response

(1 Kings 1:28-37)

- In his humility, David agreed and declared that Solomon should be anointed Α. as King of Israel.
- В. Thus, David willingly gave up the throne for the reign of his son Solomon.

V. Solomon's Anointing as King

(1 Kings 1:38-40)

- A. Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and David's loyal soldiers brought Solomon to Gihon.
- B. There, Zadok the priest anointed him with oil from the tabernacle, sounded the trumpet, and declared Solomon King of Israel.
- VI. Adonijah's Fear of Solomon
  - A. In his moment of celebration, Adonijah heard the shout of the people as they proclaimed Solomon as their King.
  - B. When he learned what had happened, he feared for his life.
  - C. Thus, he fled to the tabernacle and took hold of the horns of the altar, pleading for his life.
  - D. Solomon declared that if he showed himself worthy, he would not be harmed.
  - E. However, if he had done wickedness, he would be put to death.
